FILM COMMISSION ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The Monterey County Film Commission Board of Directors has elected new officers for the next fiscal year.

Brian Turlington, attorney at law with Fenton & Keller in Monterey, is the new board president. Others elected are Scott Grover, vice president; Vince Arcaro, secretary; Cindy Muscarello, treasurer; and Gloria Gargiulo, chairperson.

The Monterey County Film Commission, a nonprofit organization, was established and is funded in part by the Monterey County Board of Supervisors. It works to attract and facilitate on-location film production for economic development, with an annual average of $3 million coming to local communities from film business. The film commission also provides local educational opportunities related to the film industry.
