Feature film with author Dr. Wayne Dyer seeks extras for Monterey Peninsula scenes

Extras, Extras! Monterey County Film Commission has been assisting a production company with advance locations, crew and business referrals, and now the production is filming in Monterey County for the next couple of weeks. It's a feature film about Dr. Wayne Dyer, author and speaker in the field of self-development.

The production is now needs for a large number of background extras for several dates, especially Thursday, Aug. 7 beginning at 6 p.m.

They are looking for a wide variety of looks, ages and ethnicities including kids, teens, adults and seniors, men and women. "Types" may include business persons, families, and both conventional and alternative looks.

If interested, submit a headshot or snapshot with contact information to waynedyerproject@yahoo.com. Include detailed information regarding availability during the day, evening and nights during shoot days. More specific details will come from the production company.

This is a non-union production. There is no pay, but meals are provided if the shoot runs across meal times.

Film Synopsis: In this film, Dr. Wayne Dyer explores the spiritual journey from ambition to meaning. The powerful shift from the ego constructs many are taught early in life by parents and society, that promote an emphasis on achievement and accumulation, are shown in contrast to a life of meaning, focused on serving and giving back.

Through the intertwined stories of an overachieving businessman, to a mother of two seeking her own expression in the world, to a director trying to make a name for himself, this entertaining film expects to inspire and teach how to create a life of meaning and purpose.
